Special rules:

- fox: a single trump ace, which the opposing team jabs, earns a bonus point.
- swines: both trump aces on one hand are the highest trump (even higher than heart ten)
- poverty: (a solo comes first)
 - 3 trumps or less: put the trumps covered on the table, teammate is the player, who takes this cards and gives the same number of any of his cards back (he tells how much trumps he has given back)
 - 5 nines or more: the cards are redistributed.
- marriage: both club queens on one hand: the player may choose a criterion for his teammate (first foreign trick, first foreign spade trick, ...)

Announcements:

till trick	announce	meaning
2	re	club queen no 120 points for opposite team
2	contra	versus club queens no 120 points for opposite team
3	no 90	no 90 points for opposite team
6	no 60	no 60 points for opposite team
9	no 30	no 30 points for opposite team
9	black	no trick for opposite team

When the first trick has 30 points or more, then the winner of this trick must say re or contra. Re and contra doubles the value of a game. All other announcements are one bonus point for the winnerteam
In the order of annoucement must none be left out.

Soli:

- diamondsolo: no changes
- colorsolo: one color replaces the diamond cards as trump
- queensolo: only queens are trump
- jacksolo: only jacks are trump
- queen-jack-solo: only queens and jacks are trump
- king-queen-jack-solo: only kings, queens and jacks are trump
- meatless: there are no trumps
- hidden solo: a player with a marriage make no announcement

Each solo has the triple value for the solo player.

All unused former trumps are placed among the none trump cards. Order: Ace, ten, king, queen, jack, nine.
